Dear Sir / Madame,

I see no need for this further infringement on fire arm owners.

Should this amendment take place, then it will only be a matter of time before this wiharsherll be passed on to lever action rifles.

Lever action fire arms, including shotguns are used for hunting and for Western Action shooting at legal shooting clubs.

I see this as yet a further assault on legal firearm owners, yet another ever growing amendment that is added.

Reality is, harsher and more realistic laws for the misuse of any firearm is the only guarantee for the protection of society !

This supposed new amendment will yet again only affect those that are law abiding citizens that are finding it wearisome to be continually defending their rights and sport.

Sincerely,
Ian O'Neill.
